Practical strategies to support your child

- Answering past paper exam questions and self-marking against the marking instructions - these are available from the SQA website.
- Ensuring ready access to a bilingual dictionary at home.
- Practising writing Job Application Letter under timed conditions – no more than 30 minutes (please ensure these are submitted to class teacher for marking)
- Regular attendance at Study Support sessions (Mondays 3:30-4:30)
- Regularly revisiting relevant vocabulary using online tools where applicable and accessing links posted to class Teams page.
- Record yourselves reading out your completed draft of Job Application Letter to listen to regularly.
- Mind map information for each potential bullet point of the Job Application Letter
- Use colour to code revision notes.
- Create flashcards with relevant vocabulary or Job Application Letter bullet points, including unpredictable responses.
- Highlight areas where you are unsure and make sure these areas remain a key revision focus.
- Make a list of key words for each topic – memorise these words and what they mean.
- Make a list of examples of each Job Application Letter bullet point and memorise these along with your predictable bullet points.

How can you support your child?

- Help them to create a revision timetable so that revision isn't left until the last minute.
- Quiz your child on the material in their jotter / handouts after they have revised a particular topic.
- Get your child to teach you about a particular topic. Teaching others is a very effective way to learn information.
